

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Anna Caser, born in Verona on 1943, lived in many Italian cities, among which Genua, Turin, Milan, Rome. She is member of a family which in three generations counts a number of professional painters and sculptors: Ettore Caser from Venice, Nurdio and Guido Trentini from Verona and Angelo Barabino from Tortona. She was educated at the fine arts school in Genua and obtained the degree to teach artistic drawing at the grammar schools.

She attended the artistic ceramic laboratory with Rocco Borella in Albissola. From 1970 to 1972 she attended the specialization courses on figure drawing and color theory with Rolando Monti at the Fine Arts Academy in Rome.

From 1980 to 1987 she was engaged with many major firms in industrial design and publishing, using electronic publishing and computer graphic technologies.

She is active in the artistic arena since 1960 participating in personal and collective exhibitions in Europe and in the United States.

She obtained awards and mentions. Her works are at important collections both private and public collections in Italy, Europe, Usa , Canada and Emitati Arabi.