Anna Caser - Italy

Born in Verona, in 1943. She was educated at the Fine Arts School in Genoa and obtained a degree to teach art. She attended the artistic ceramic laboratory with Rocco Borella in Albissola. She attended the specialization courses on figure drawing and color theory with Rolando Monti at the Fine Arts Academy in Rome. She is active in the artistic arena since 1960 participating in personal and collective exhibitions in Europe, USA, and Canada.

Simonetta Porazzo - Italy

A divulger, a passionate woman working daily with men and women who find a paradoxical effective communication weapon in art. Her art full of languages: signs, figures, symbols, and sounds maybe she is not fully aware of by virtue of the Babel that crowds her life. However, be it ceramics (incredible Baroque-like, sexy ceramics that made her name) or collages (fantastic, huge compositions stretching from the ceiling and down to the floor), Simonetta speaks, communicates, insinuates, suggests, plays, understands, tries, experiments and most of all, she moves feelings.
